

VOU News for You

VOUCA Management Newsletter/April 18, 2016

What's Wrong With This Picture?

The many stormwater management ponds in the VOU are fenced and marked No Trespassing. If a sign is missing, unauthorized entry is still prohibited—which is why the ponds are surrounded by locked fences. Please remember that these are heavily regulated, environmentally sensitive areas. They are engineered, with hidden pipes, hatches, and grates. These are not natural grassy structures, and they are not dog runs. This resident climbed over the fence and lifted her pet over, apparently to play. This activity is prohibited and may cause damage to the ponds. Please report trespassers to manager@villagesofurbana.net so that we can follow up directly with the residents involved.
