VOUCA Management Newsletter/February 24, 2014

News You Can Use

Meeting Schedule

Meetings to be held this week at the Natelli Community Center:

Monday, February 24—Finance, 7 PM

Tuesday, February 25—Board of Directors, 6:30 PM

Upcoming Meetings:

Monday, March 3—Pools and Outdoor Recreation, 7 PM

Wednesday, March 5—Design Review, 7 PM

Please Shovel Your Sidewalks

Please remember that single family homeowners are responsible for clearing snow and ice from the sidewalks adjacent to their homes. This is an important safety measure, and it's the law! As a public service, residents with fire hydrants on their property should clear snow from around them. This will allow firemen easier access in the case of emergency.

Snow Storm Damage Updates

Now that the snow is starting to melt, it is evident that the plowing process caused some damage to grass and plants next to the streets and paths. Please note that damage is being catalogued. Ruts and damaged grass will be repaired during the spring mulching and cleanup period, currently planned for late March, weather permitting. If you have any particular area to report, please contact manager@villagesofurbana.net with the location and management will follow up.

Wine Tasting and Social

March 15, 2014
