Eco-Goats Back in VOU

The goats returned to the VOU on June 15. They will be stationed on the Sugarloaf Path to start chomping down on all the bad weeds along the path under the forest. Goats love an audience! Please feel free to stop by and encourage them in their weed-eating work. Please do NOT try to touch them, reach behind the fence, or distract them. Please do NOT try to feed them anything! They are being paid to eat the weeds and nothing else!

4th of July Trash Collection

The week of July 4, trash will be collected on Monday, July 3 as usual, but trash that would normally be placed out for collection on July 4 will be collected on WEDNESDAY, July 5. Please plan accordingly.

Remember to place trash out ONLY inside a plastic bag that is inside a lidded container. If you regularly have overflow trash, please consider getting a second trash can. Birds and animals know that plastic bags potentially contain food and they pick them apart. Even if they are out for only a few hours. Please also remember to contain your recycling completely inside the lidded container or you may fill the bin no higher than the sides of the bin. We all want the VOU to remain clean and pleasant!
