Registration Open for Soccer Bugs

Are you looking for a fun, outdoor activity for your child this spring, located here in the VOU? Registration is NOW OPEN for spring Soccer Bugs classes! Soccer Bugs classes are curriculum-based, taught by fun, energetic coaches. The classes use soccer as a tool to help develop fine motor skills, coordination, social skills, teamwork, etc. Classes and skills practiced are dependent on age level.

Classes will run on Saturday mornings from April 5th thru May 31st (no class on May 24th due to the holiday weekend). Classes are 50 minutes long and will take place here in the VOU either at the field next to the Natelli Community Center or the field at the corner of Lew Wallace Street and Bealls Farm Road, depending on class size. The cost for the 8 week class is $100 per child. Each paid participant also receives a free uniform! You can read more about the program at www.mysoccerbugs.com.

Registration is now open and space is limited so we recommend you register as early as possible to secure your preferred class/time. Currently, we are running a 2 & 3 year old class at 10:00am, a 3 & 4 year old class at 11:00am, and a 4 & 5 year old class at 12:00pm.
